

DO IT HERSELF

A JOURNEY TO FINANCIAL FREEDOM

WHAT

A day-long financial planning seminar

Budgeting: Making Ends Meet

Asset Allocation and Investing: Your Roadmap to Saving and Investing

Smart Financial Steps for Unmarried Couples

Federal and New Jersey Estate Tax Update

Understanding Your Credit Score and Credit Report

Smart Financial Decisions for Young Women

Money Management for Divorced or Separated Women

Tax Tips

Retirement and Social Security Planning

WHO WHEN

Women of All Ages

Saturday

JANUARY 28, 2012

8:15am - 3:15pm

WHERE

Caldwell College – Alumni Theatre

Caldwell, NJ

Keynote Speaker:

Sharon Epperson

CNBC Senior Energy and Personal Finance Correspondent

Estate Planning

Preparing for the unexpected can make a life crisis easier to bear. Listen to Sharon Epperson's story of how her father's planning helped her family cope with his death. Know the ins and outs of estate planning by learning where to start.

HOW

Register online at moneymattersnj.com/doitherself

Or contact Jeanette Miller at 973-226-4494, x 246. Seating is limited. Registrations are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

MONEY MATTERS
moneymattersnj.com

COST

$20 one person $25 two persons (includes light breakfast, lunch and giveaways)

For additional information on this event or for tips on financial management, visit moneymattersnj.com.