

2010 Orientation Information

Orientation is designed to welcome and introduce all freshmen and their parents to Caldwell College. The role of the orientation leader is:

- ✓ to connect the incoming freshmen to other students and the College community
- ✓ to become a resource for the incoming freshmen
- ✓ to familiarize the student with the College campus grounds
- ✓ to serve as a role model to incoming and current College students
- ✓ to represent the College in a positive manner

The students selected for the Orientation Team will have the unique honor and rewarding opportunity to enhance their leadership skills and the potential of new friendships.

As part of the selection process a completed application and personal interview are required.

Qualifications

- ✓ Exhibit potential leadership skills
- ✓ Ability to maintain a minimum grade point average of 2.5
- ✓ Good disciplinary standing
- ✓ Demonstrate effective interpersonal and communication skills
- ✓ Ability to work with diverse team members, students, parents, and staff
- ✓ Be flexible, responsible, and willing to assist others
- ✓ Desire to learn more about yourself and Caldwell College

Responsibilities

Attend and participate in all training sessions scheduled in the Spring 2010 semester. Training dates and times will be scheduled and communicated to all applicants before a commitment to serve as a 2010 Orientation Leader is requested. If selected you are expected to:

- ✓ Attend and participate in Orientation 2010 activities (Drive-in Day) on Saturday, July 17 and Orientation Weekend on August 27, 28, 29, and 30.
- ✓ Promote interactions between incoming freshmen through group discussion, icebreakers, meals, and all activities at orientation
- ✓ Provide accurate answers to student and parent questions on a variety of topics
- ✓ Encourage social activities among freshmen through direct involvement
- ✓ Work with Orientation staff to assist with and support all aspects of Orientation.
- ✓ Willingness to recognize that your time and talent will be used for the service of others and to enhance your life skills

Gratuity

A gift certificate to the Campus Store and/or Flex dollars will be given in recognition of your service.

Save this information