ELIGIBILITY AND GUIDELINES

- Current employment with M&T Bank is required to receive the Corporate Partnership Scholarship. If the student does not remain an employee for at least one half of each term for which they receive this benefit, the scholarship will be reversed and become a balance due on the student's account.
- Eligible candidates include employees and their spouses and dependents. Dependents qualify if they meet the requisite definition in the IRS guidelines.
- This scholarship form does not guarantee admission to Caldwell University. Candidates must meet the specific admissions criteria of their particular program of interest.
- Accepted students must comply with all rules, regulations, policies and standards of Caldwell University.
- Enrollment capacity may be limited. Accepted students are required to contact the specific program of interest to verify space and official starting dates.
- This 25% tuition scholarship cannot be combined with any other institutional aid; however, an otherwise eligible applicant may apply for and receive federal and/or state financial aid in accordance with applicable regulations and guidelines. Each student has the opportunity to choose the preferred eligible offer of financial aid.
- Subsequent future eligibility will be verified directly with the employer two times a year, in January and August.
