Shore Chapter
Jane Haveron Student Scholarship

The Shore Chapter Jane Haveron Undergraduate Student Scholarship offers financial support to a qualifying female student to continue or complete her degree. It is the hope of the Shore Chapter of the Caldwell University Alumni Association that this scholarship will reduce the financial burden of an education and encourage the awarded student to reach her goal of graduation.

Eligibility Requirements

- Matriculating Caldwell University female student
- Financial Need based on FAFSA on file
- Caldwell University GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Essay describing yourself and future plans
- Copy of unofficial transcript from Caldwell University's portal
- Letter of Recommendation from your Professor/Advisor

Scholarship Award and Term

- The scholarship will be awarded for one year (fall and spring semesters) with potential for one-year renewal based on eligibility and reapplication.
- Scholarship is only for tuition/fees/books at Caldwell University.
- Distribution of funds will be through the Alumni Affairs office and posted to student's account.
- The scholarship will be above any Institutional Funds already awarded to the student.

Jane Haveron ('44) worked closely with Sister Joanna Tracy, moderator of the Alumni Association, to establish a Shore Chapter. She gathered a small group of women alums living in the New Jersey shore area and established an emergency fund to assist Caldwell University students seeking a degree. As a result of fundraising over the years, the fund grew into an endowed scholarship to be awarded to a female student in the process of completing her degree.
