Instructions

Your 2016–2017 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before disbursing Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this institutional verification document and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You and a parent/spouse whose information was reported on the FAFSA must complete and sign this institutional verification document, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to the financial aid office. We may ask for additional information. If you have questions about verification, contact the financial aid office as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

Household Resources/Other Untaxed Income

The Student's/Parents' income, as reported, falls below minimum income levels, and as such, we will need to document the student's means of support. Please indicate the amount of Other Untaxed Income in yearly amounts received below:

Other Untaxed Income for 2015	Student	Parent/Spouse
1. Payments to tax-deferred pension and savings	$ _____	_____
2. Child support received	$ _____	_____
3. Housing, food and other living allowances paid to members of military, clergy, and others	$ _____	_____
4. Veterans non-education benefits	$ _____	_____
5. Other untaxed income (not included elsewhere, Social Security Benefits, SNAP, TANF, Section 8)	$ _____	_____

If you do not receive any of the items above but, receive in kind support then please fill in below.
In kind support means that you live with a friend or relative who pays the bills, and that you live in their home and share meals at their dinner table.
